PRIVACY ACT AND PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENT

The Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 authorizes the collection of this information. The information will be used, along with any accompanying documentation to determine whether you are entitled to 10-point veterans' preference. This information may be disclosed to: (1) the Department of Veterans Affairs, or the appropriate branch of the Armed Forces to verify your claim; (2) a court, or a Federal, State, or local agency for checking on law violations or for other related authorized purposes; (3) a Federal, State, or local government agency, if you are participating in a special employment assistance program; or (4) other Federal, State, or local government agencies, congressional offices, and international organizations for purposes of employment consideration, e.g., if you are on an Office of Personnel Management or other list of eligibles. Failure to provide any part of the information may result in a ruling that you are not eligible for 10-point veterans' preference.

Public burden reporting for this collection of information is estimated to take approximately 10 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to OPM Forms Officer, U.S. Office of Personnel Management, Washington, D.C. 20415; The OMB Number, 3206-0001, is currently valid. OPM may not collect this information and you are not required to respond, unless this number is displayed.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED - READ CAREFULLY

Please submit photocopies of documents because they will not be returned.

A. Documentation of Service and Separation.

Any official document or statement from the Armed Forces showing separation, discharge or release from active duty is under honorable conditions (Honorable or General Discharge). Note: Only the branch of service in which the individual served can certify active duty service was performed "Under Honorable Conditions." Such documents include, but are not limited to:

- DD-214, "Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty"
- Retirement or separation orders
- Documents showing transfer to any of the reserve corps of the Armed Forces
- Certification: any written document from the armed forces that certifies the service member is expected to be discharged or released from active duty service in the armed forces under honorable conditions not later than 120 days after the date the certification is signed.
- Official statement from military personnel records center

B. Documentation of Non-Compensable Service-Connected Disability (less than 10%); Purple Heart, and Nonservice-Connected Disability Pension. Such documents include, but are not limited to:

- An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs or from a branch of the Armed Forces, certifying to the present existence of the veteran's service-connected disability of less than 10%.
- An official citation, document, or discharge certificate, issued by a branch of the Armed Forces, showing the award to the veteran of the Purple Heart.
- An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, certifying that the veteran is receiving a nonservice-connected disability pension.

C. Documentation of Compensable Service-Connected Disability (10% or more). Such documents include, but are not limited to:

- An official document, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, or from a branch of the Armed Forces, certifying that the veteran has a service-connected disability of 10% or more.
- An official document or retired orders from a branch of the Armed Forces, showing that the veteran was retired due to a service-connected disability or has been transferred to a Disability Retirement List with a service-connected disability of at least 10% or more.

For spouses and mothers of disabled veterans, who checked item 7 or 9, submit the following:

An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, or from a branch of the Armed Forces, certifying:

- the present existence of the veterans service-connected disability;
- the percentage and nature of the service-connected disability or disabilities (including the combined percentage); and
- a notation as to whether or not the service-connected disability is rated as permanent and total.

D. Documentation of Veteran's Death

- If death occurred while not on active military duty, submit certified copy of death certificate.
- When a veteran dies on active duty, the family does not receive a DD Form 214; the family receives a DD Form 1300, Report of Casualty, on which there is no place to record the character of service. Thus, when a veteran dies on active duty, his or her service should be presumed to be under honorable conditions unless the military service specifically indicates otherwise.

E. Documentation of Service or Death During a War, in a Campaign or Expedition for which a Campaign Badge is Authorized, or During the Period Authorized, or During the Period of April 28, 1952 through July 1, 1955.

Submit documentation of service or death during a war or during the period April 28, 1952, through July 1, 1955, or during a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge is authorized.

F. Documentation of Deceased or Disabled Veteran's Mother's Claim for Preference because of Her Husband's Total and Permanent Disability.

Submit a statement from husband's physician showing the prognosis of his disease and percentage of his disability.

G. Documentation of Annulment of Remarriage by Widow or Widower of Veteran.

Submit either:

- Certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs that entitlement to pension or compensation was restored due to annulment; or
- A certified copy of the court decree of annulment.
